Weird JR. High

The Pitch Weird Junior High is about a group of unique junior high students attending Jonah Weird High and their strange adventures. Each character must learn to get along with each other as well as fit in with the students around them. The pressure is hard for them to live up to their famous and strange relatives, as well as pass math class. They also have to deal with the surrounding junior highs such as Pirate High, Robot High, Pretend High, Ninja High, Zombie High and Sci Fi High as well as many others. They just may survive if they don't drive each other crazy first.

The Run Down Weird Junior High is about that rough stages in life kids have to tackle but with hilarious twists. These kids need to relate to each other as well as prevent strange math portals of Evil from opening, beat the ultimate mega go cart race and visit other rival junior highs. As they go on their adventures, they soon find secrets about their school and it's founder, unraveling even more excitement.

Format Weird Junior High will be geared towards a younger audience but riddled with humor even adults can appreciate it. Drake will be the cool kid with all the answers, even though a lot of the times he's wrong. Crystal is the boy crazy girl in the bunch, who has some strange mind powers while, Stinky McGee is the uber nerd that always get himself in trouble. Chester is a great kid, who is athletic and smart but full moons bring trouble for him. Frank is the genius in the group, who many times is his worst enemy, or maybe its his experiments are.
